

Booker T. Washington High School Class of 2007

As the next class to approach the 10-year anniversary of our graduation, we've found that we are a unique bunch. We are still young. We are still finding our way. Some of us are paying off student loans, while others are continuing their education. Some of us have kids to care for, while others are still figuring out how to take care of themselves. Some of us live in our childhood homes, while others are spread across the globe. Some of us have big salaries, while others are just scraping by. The Class of 2007 has always been a close-knit group because, regardless of marital status, tax bracket, gender, sexual orientation, religion, political alignment, race, ethnicity or any other classification, we are all wildcats. And despite all of our differences, in May 2017, we will celebrate what brings us together.

We would love for you to be a part of what makes our 10-year reunion special, important, and memorable. We think everyone would agree that a cause that brings people together in this crazy world is one worth supporting. But in case you need a little something extra, we've attached a listing of our various sponsorship opportunities. If you don't find one that fits your style, let us know. We'd be happy to create one for you. Whether it's to promote your business to a group of millennials or just because you are a fellow wildcat, we appreciate your generosity. With your support, we can keep costs down to help make sure each of our classmates is able to celebrate with us.

Please contact us if you have any questions. We look forward to working with you!

Sincerely,
